

F-Register's Regularities and User-Guideline

a) Subscribers

A Subscriber is a User who has registered himself and has entered a subscription by payment of the subscription fee.

Please note, that only Subscribers do have access to

- the database section
- the F-Register Community
- the "virtual Book" and its Supplements
- various gadgets

Subscribers do have to fully respect the "F-Register terms of use and subscription conditions". Contempt of these may cause the subscriber's exclusion. F-Register fully respects the car owners' privacy. Details beyond a standard record of the database are shown only on the owner's/dealer's request and to its full liability.

No data received through F-Register should be used outside the F-Register community. F-Register holds the copyright of any data displayed on these web-sites, unless noted otherwise.

b) all users

F-Register fully respects the car owners' privacy. Details beyond a standard record of the database are only shown on the owner's/dealer's request and to its full liability.

All contribution by users and subscribers must comply with copyrights. Pictures can only be accepted, if the provider holds the copyright.
